A message from LAU's President

It is my honor and pride to share with you the remarkable generosity that has been afforded to the Lebanese American University (LAU) by our supporters as outlined in our inaugural Contributors Report. During the Fiscal Year 2015—October 1st 2014 to September 30th 2015—and through 1,229 donations, the university received gifts totaling over $21.3 million.

With our eyes set on ambitious goals that further propel LAU towards excellence, we channeled these resources into several important areas. We provided an unprecedented amount of financial aid and scholarships to students. We increased our level of recruitment of renowned faculty. We launched additional degree programs that help meet the demands of today's job market. And we established cutting-edge facilities across both campuses, as well as several other initiatives that enrich students' experience at the university.

Our fundraising efforts also allowed the university to make good on its Fulfilling the Promise campaign to raise $100 million dedicated to academic excellence. In fact, by the end of the 2015 fiscal year, the funds raised for the campaign stood at $98 million—just $2 million shy of the campaign goal one year before its scheduled close.

Undeniably, it is the dedication of our donors who are behind all this success. They inspire us, and amaze us with their inextinguishable passion for education and unwavering support of LAU. And they so selflessly give to the university so that the promise of academic excellence moves forward at a rapid pace, in line with our region's desperate need of youth who are equipped with the knowledge and skills required to make a difference in this world. Even more, our supporters demonstrate that together anything is possible, and in doing so set an important example for all our students so that giving back to others becomes part of their values.

I extend my sincere thanks to our LAU family of supporters for their kindness, and commitment to believing that together anything is possible.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph G. Jabbra, Ph.D.

Senior Class Gift - Plant Your Class Tree 2015

The university's Senior Class Gift Program launched in 2012, and involves planting class trees that allow graduating students to truly leave a mark on their university's campuses. Through seniors' small donations to participate in the Plant Your Class Campaign — with proceeds going towards scholarship at LAU — the initiative not only further beautifies campus grounds, but plays an important role in students' development by instilling the value of giving back.

New York Fundraising Gala Dinners - 2010, 2011, 2013 & 2015

In order to honor LAU's supporters in North America, including alumni based there, LAU began hosting an annual New York Gala Dinner in 2010. Bringing together hundreds of supporters at each dinner, these events aim to celebrate the devotion of donors and also recognize the university's achievements. More importantly, the proceeds from the gala are earmarked for LAU's Institute for Women Studies in the Arab World (IWSAW).
